

Glossary

Antisemitism: Hostility toward or hatred of Jews as a religious or ethnic group, often accompanied by social, economic, or political discrimination.

Concentration camp: Throughout German-occupied Europe, the Nazis established camps to detain and, if necessary, kill so-called enemies of the state, including Jews, Roma and Sinti, political and religious opponents, members of national resistance movements, homosexuals, and others. Imprisonment in a concentration camp was of unlimited duration, was not linked to a specific act, and was not subject to any judicial review. In addition to concentration camps, the Nazi regime ran several other kinds of camps including labour camps, transit camps, prisoner-of-war camps, and killing centres (such as Auschwitz).

Holocaust: The Holocaust was the state-sponsored systematic persecution and annihilation of European Jewry by Nazi Germany and its collaborators between 1933 and 1945. Six million Jews were murdered.

Kindertransport (Children's Transport): This was the informal name of a series of rescue efforts between 1938 and 1940, which brought Jewish children from Nazi-controlled territory to safety. Jewish parents sent their children on organised transports to live in children's homes, with foster families, or with distant relatives in Great Britain, the Netherlands, or France. The Kindertransport efforts brought about 10,000 children to safety in Great Britain.

Kristallnacht: usually referred to as the 'Night of Broken Glass'<sup>1</sup>. It is the name given to the violent anti-Jewish pogrom of 9-10 November 1938. Instigated primarily by Nazi party officials and the SA (Nazi Storm Troopers), the pogrom occurred throughout Germany, annexed Austria, and the Sudetenland region of Czechoslovakia.

Pogrom: Russian word meaning 'to wreak havoc, to demolish violently'. Historically, the term refers to violent attacks, usually planned, by local non-Jewish populations on Jews.
